DANIEL HUBBEL NAMED REGIONAL DIRECTOR OF NLRB'S KANSAS CITY, KS REGIONAL OFFICE

Daniel L. Hubbel has been appointed Regional Director of the National Labor Relations Board's Kansas City Regional Office in Overland Park, KS (Region 17). Mr. Hubbel succeeds D. Michael McConnell, who retired on August 3, 2007.

A career NLRB employee, Mr. Hubbel has been serving since April 2004, as Assistant to the Regional Director in the Kansas City office. In his new position, Mr. Hubbel will supervise the handling of NLRB cases arising in Kansas, Oklahoma, western Missouri, Nebraska excluding the panhandle, and parts of southwestern Iowa.

The NLRB administers and enforces the National Labor Relations Act. It conducts secret-ballot elections to determine whether employees desire union representation and investigates and remedies unfair labor practices.

In announcing the appointment, NLRB Chairman Robert J. Battista and General Counsel Ronald Meisburg stated:

Dan Hubbel's substantial experience with the Agency provides him with the substantial expertise and talent the Agency needs to continue the Kansas City Region's excellent record of high quality and responsive service to the public. During his years of service with the Agency, Dan has acquired a well-deserved reputation as a principled and knowledgeable Agency manager. Dan has demonstrated a strong commitment to addressing the needs of the public the Agency serves.

A native of Kansas City, KS, Mr. Hubbel earned his B.S. degree in 1976 and Master's degree in 1977 from the University of Kansas. He has served his entire NLRB career in the Kansas City Regional Office, starting in 1978 as a Field Examiner. He was promoted to the positions of Supervisor in 2001 and Assistant to the Regional Director in 2004.
